3. Impending litigation.

Mr. Sills and Mr. Moss reviewed the matter of the 607 Springs Road property, in which a house was constructed on a property with frontage and a street address in Bedford, but with the house and almost all of the assessed property value in Billerica.

The builder has constructed the property with a letter from the School Department indicating that since the property paid some property tax to Bedford, the children in the house would be able to attend schools in Bedford.

Mr. Moss reviewed the options available to the School Committee and entertained questions about the case.

No action was taken.

4. Adjournment to Open Session
